Prayer Intentions

Pope's Intention for November: For the proper use of wealth Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

For the sick, especially Ali & Chris Broderick, Martha Wakeford, Mary Miles, Pat Moroney, Suzanne Townsend , Sharon Mizen, Yvonne Schönholzer, & Linda Clarke.

For all the faithful departed, may they rest in peace.

National Youth Sunday. Sunday 22nd November.

This year the focus is on the 800th anniversary of St Francis of Assisi's death. Readings for next Sunday really lend themselves to some reflection on his life & ministry. It is also a really good day for the parish community to pray for young people, particularly for those who perhaps are no longer actively involved in the life of the parish right now. There is a Young Adults Retreat at Buckfast Abbey that weekend, to which you may want to direct to some of your youth. I understand that they are still taking bookings. If you know of anyone who might be interested, email youth@prcdtr.org.uk or click here for an application form.

Saint of the Week

St Margaret of Scotland (c.1045-16th November 1093 A.D.)

Margaret was born in Hungary, but she was an Anglo-Saxon of the Royal House of Wessex. Her grandfather was St Edward the Confessor's half-brother, and was briefly king in 1016. Her father, Edward the Exile, fled England to Hungary when Cnut took the English throne. He returned with Margaret in 1057 but soon died. After the Norman Conquest in 1066, Margaret fled to Scotland where she married King Malcom III (made famous by Shakespeare). She was very devout, and encouraged her husband to promote religious reforms, and taught her children about Christian leadership. She was known for serving the tables of orphans and widows, washing the feet of the poor, and seeking good treatment of prisoners. Margaret prayed fervently and spent time in devotional reading of the Gospels. She died on 16th November 1093, possibly of grief after her husband and son were killed in battle, and was buried at Dunfermline Abbey in Fife.
