AROUND THE DIOCESE AND ACROSS THE COUNTRY

CANON PAUL CUMMINS' MESSAGE ABOUT CARLO ACUTIS

Carlo Acutis was born May 3, 1991, in London, where his father was working. Just a few months later, he moved with his parents to Italy. He was diagnosed with leukemia as a teenager and died in 2006 at only 15 years old. From a young age, Carlo had a special love for God, even though his parents weren't especially devout. As a young child, Carlo loved to pray the rosary. He was devoted to daily Mass and acts of kindness.

Despite his young age, he exhibited a keen interest in understanding the mysteries of technology and Catholicism. He loved playing video games. Carlo was fascinated with computer coding and used his skills to spread the faith. He helped his family put together an exhibition on Eucharistic miracles which was displayed at thousands of parishes on five continents and which can be accessed online <https://www.miracolieucaaristici.org/en/Liste/list.html> His witness has brought many people to conversion, including his own family.

Pope Francis recognized a first miracle attributed to Carlo's intercession which involved the healing of a 3-year-old boy in Brazil in 2013 who had been diagnosed with a malformation of his pancreas since birth. That led to his beatification. The second miracle involved the healing of a 21-year-old girl from Costa Rica named Valeria Valverde, who was near death after seriously injuring her head in a bicycle accident.

Today, Carlo Acutis serves as a model for young people seeking to navigate the complexities of the digital world while remaining faithful to the Gospel. Carlo's example challenges young Catholics to use their talents for the glory of God and the spread of the Gospel.

I am walking the last 110km of the Via Francigena into Rome in September for Life Charity and hope you or your contacts/parishioners may be willing to contribute. I have paid to do the trek and hope to raise more than I have paid out - otherwise, I might as well have stayed at home and sent the charity the cash.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST CUTHBERT OF LINDISFARNE- c.634 A.D. - 20 March 687

Born in Dunbar in the Kingdom of Northumbria (now in Scotland), Cuthbert's family were early converts to Christianity. At the age of about 17 he became a monk with a community which was part of the Celtic Christian mission to the Anglo-Saxons. He travelled around, preaching the Gospel. Cuthbert was renowned for his ascetic lifestyle, generosity, warmth, and a reputation for miracles. In 665 he was made prior of Lindisfarne Abbey but retired to a small island by the Abbey as a hermit in 676 to deepen his prayer life. People would come to visit but eventually he lived in a cell with a window he opened for blessing visitors. In 685 after much persuasion he was appointed Bishop of Lindisfarne. However, he died in 687. He is one of the few saints whose relics survived the Reformation. They are now housed in Durham Cathedral.
